

AFRICA: 1960–2010–2060

A Century (Re)visited: What Next?

Fifty Years of Independence – Fifty Years of Interdependence?
International Conference

27 – 29 May 2010

Pécs (Hungary), “European Capital of Culture 2010”

PROGRAMME

as part of Africa Week 2010

Venue: University of Pécs – Ifjúság útja 6. “C” Building C/V/2 Lecture Theatre

27 May (Thursday) – First Conference Day

08:45 – 09:30 Registration

09:30 – 10:00 Welcome addresses

Zsolt PÁVA, Mayor of Pécs, Patron of Africa Week 2010

Ferenc FISCHER, Dean, Faculty of Humanities, University of Pécs

HE T. E. NETSHITENZHE, Ambassador of the Republic of South Africa to Hungary

István TARRÓSY and Loránd SZABÓ, organisers of the conference

10:00 – 11:30 Keynote address (including Q&A)

Democratization in Africa: What progress by what means?

Göran HYDEN, Distinguished Professor Emeritus, University of Florida, USA

11:30 – 13:45 Plenary panel session Chair: Loránd SZABÓ, University of Pécs

1. Social anthropology of colonial and postcolonial sub-Saharan Africa

Hana HORAKOVÁ, University of Pardubice-Metropolitan University Prague, Czech Republic

2. The role of traditional authorities in the transformations of rural governance in Southern Africa

Mario ZAMPONI, University of Bologna, Italy

3. What happened to them? White settlers in Africa since independence

Gábor BÚR, Eötvös Loránd University of Budapest, Hungary

4. Réflexions sur les 50 ans des indépendances des pays africains (1960-2010)

Sándor CSIZMADIA, University of Pécs-Corvinus University Budapest, Hungary

5. Un continent déficitaire en africanisation (politique de sécurité régionale et globale)

Mihály BENKES, Eötvös Loránd University Budapest, Hungary

6. Espaces de transition africaine: évolution politique et anthropologie appliquée dans même milieu des sociétés post-coloniales

András A. GERGELY, Hungarian Academy of Sciences Budapest, Hungary

7. Patrice Lumumba, le presque Che Guevara du continent africain?

Loránd SZABÓ, University of Pécs, Hungary

8. Lutte contre la pauvreté pour un développement durable: Aide au développement ou éducation au développement?

France MUTOMBO, Foundation for Africa Budapest, Democratic Republic of the Congo-Hungary

13:45 – 14:45 Buffet lunch

14:45 – 16:00 Plenary panel session Chair: Mihály BENKES, Eötvös Loránd University Budapest

9. Do you believe? (that you can help as a volunteer to Africa)

Ágnes CSORDÁS, TAITA Foundation Hungary, Hungary

10. Migration inside Africa

Sándor BALOGH, African-Hungarian Union, Hungary

11. Malta, the gate of migration to Europe

Blanka BUZETZKY – Norbert PAP, University of Pécs, Hungary

12. Healthcare with minimal resources in an African slum area

Szabolcs VÍGVÁRI – Gábor TERNÁK, University of Pécs, Hungary

16:00 – 16:15 Tea-Coffee Break

16:15 – 18:00 Parallel panel sessions

Session 1 – Venue: C/V/2 Lecture Theatre Chair: Gábor BÚR, Eötvös Loránd University Budapest 13. Changes in relations of science, publicity and politics in thinking about Africa at the beginning of the 20th century in Hungary Edina KICSINDI, University of Pécs, Hungary 14. Challenges of the didactics of the African history in the post-millennium Hungary Attila HORVÁTH, Budapest University of Technology and Economics, Hungary 15. Distribution of power within the post-conflict reconstruction concept (Liberian case) Katarína BAJZÍKOVÁ, Comenius University Bratislava-African Centre of Slovakia, Slovakia 16. Reconciliation in Sierra Leone – what does it mean to the ordinary Sierra Leoneans? Katerina WERKMANN, Charles University Prague, Czech Republic 17. Colours and symbols of Ghana at its 50th anniversary Gabriella SÁNDOR, Eötvös Loránd University Budapest, Hungary	Session 2 – Venue: C/V/1 Lecture Theatre Chair: Tamás RÉGI, Leeds Metropolitan University 18. The refugee issue in Africa: the limitations of the UNHCR Miklós TÓTH, Corvinus University Budapest, Hungary 19. Hungarian peacekeepers in Western Sahara János BESENYŐ, Zrínyi Miklós National Defence University Budapest, Hungary 20. Maghrebian prospects in Africa Petra PATTY, Corvinus University Budapest, Hungary 21. Foreign aid to Africa and the effects of the crisis Balázs SZENT-IVÁNYI, Corvinus University Budapest, Hungary 22. Finnish-African relations Géza DÁVID, University of Pécs, Hungary
--	---

18:15 South Africa Evening

Fashion show: Traditional South African attire such as Xhosa, Ndebele, Venda, Zulu

Exhibition: South Africa: Discover the Land of Diversity! (photo exhibition) and South African arts and crafts followed by a video presentation of the 2010 FIFA World Cup host city-stadiums and tourism sites

20:00 Reception hosted by the Embassy of the Republic of South Africa

Venue: Paulus Café and Restaurant (Ifjúság útja 6.)

28 May (Friday) – Second Conference Day

09:00 – 10:30 Keynote address (including Q&A)

Why Africa? And what it might be...

Richard DOWDEN, Director, Royal African Society, UK

10:30 – 12:30 Plenary panel session Chair: Göran HYDEN, University of Florida

1. Egypt and peacekeeping in Africa

HE Aly EL-HEFNY, Embassy of Egypt in Budapest, Egypt-Hungary

2. The hut tax in the Lunda region: contradictions of the colonial state in Angola

Maciel SANTOS, Porto University, Portugal

3. Why Asians in Africa can't become natives, 1860–2000?

Gijsbert OONK, Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands

4. Feeding systems for livestock in the arid Southern Africa savannah with special reference to beef cattle

Chris S. DANNHAUSER – Szilvia OROSZ, University of Limpopo, South Africa – Szent István University Gödöllő, Hungary

5. Morality and the respective Other: Mursi social practices and the wealth of the tourists

Tamás RÉGI, Leeds Metropolitan University, UK

6. New triangle of development: Africa–Asia–The Persian Gulf. South-South dynamics and their effects on the transformation of the international system

István TARRÓSY, University of Pécs, Hungary

12:30 – 13:30 Buffet lunch

13:30 – 15:15 Parallel panel sessions

Session 3 – Venue: C/V/2 Lecture Theatre
Chair: István TARRÓSY, University of Pécs

7. History of the Sino-Sudanese relationship

Zoltán VÖRÖS, University of Pécs, Hungary

8. The way towards an independent South Sudan

Zoltán ILLÉS, Corvinus University Budapest, Hungary

9. External actors in the Somali Conflict since 2004

András HETTYEY, Andrassy University Budapest, Hungary

10. Maritime piracy, capital, and securitisation of the Somali Basin

Zoltán GLÜCK, Central European University Budapest, Hungary

11. Radicalisation among youth in Somalia

Lilla SCHUMICKY, University of Bradford, UK

Session 4 – Venue: C/V/1 Lecture Theatre

Chair : Mihály SÁRKÁNY, Hungarian Academy of Sciences Budapest

12. Domestic slaves and enforced labour in the Mbundu village writings (Angola)

Éva SEBESTYÉN, Porto University, Hungary-Portugal

13. Trade patterns of Bakuba artifacts in the Congo

Ildikó SZILASI, University of Pécs, Hungary

14. Kasesema – Spiritual healing, spirit possession and dreams within a mutumwa prophet-healing church in Lusaka

Katerina MILDNEROVÁ, University of West Bohemia, Czech Republic

15. The new generation of the Nigerian poetry after 2000

Marianna KÁRMÁN, Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Hungary

16. Archaic African epic: a neglected genre?

Szilárd BIERNACZKY, Eötvös Loránd University Budapest, Hungary

15:15 – 15:30 Tea-Coffee Break

15:30 – 17:30 Plenary panel session Chair: Mario ZAMPONI, University of Bologna

17. Ethiopia: an empire, a religion, a nation, a class, or a federation? Nation-building on the ruins of an ancient African empire

Ferenc Dávid MARKÓ, Central European University Budapest, Hungary

18. Decentralisation of land management in Ethiopia, case study

Davide CHINIGÓ, University of Bologna, Italy

19. Existing and developing data on soils of Africa

Vince LÁNG –Márta FUCHS – Erika MICHÉLI, Szent István University Gödöllő, Hungary

20. Micro hydro power plant gives light to Kasugho, Democratic Republic of the Congo

Katalin CSATÁDI, Jane Goodall Institute, Hungary

21. Foraging behavior of chacma baboons

Ágnes FARKAS, University of Graz, Hungary-Austria

17:30 – 18:00 Tea-Coffee Break

18:00 – 18:45 “Géza FÜSSI NAGY” Memorial Lecture

From ethnic history to world history: The case of the Kikuyu

Mihály SÁRKÁNY, Head of Department, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Ethnography Research Institute

18:45 – 19:00 Final remarks and future follow-up

István TARRÓSY and Loránd SZABÓ, organisers of the conference

20:00 Conference dinner and farewell

CONTACT

István TARRÓSY, Ph.D., tarrosy@publikon.hu
Department of Political Studies, Africa Research Centre, Faculty of Humanities, University of Pécs organiser of the conference

Loránd SZABÓ, szabo@btk.pte.hu
Department of Modern History, Institute of History, Faculty of Humanities, University of Pécs
organiser of the conference

THE CONFERENCE IS SUPPORTED BY:
University of Pécs, “Pécs2010 University Fund”
City Council of Pécs
Faculty of Humanities, University of Pécs
“Oktatásért Közalapítvány” (Education Public Foundation)
Students’ Union, Faculty of Humanities, University of Pécs
Publikon Books